Here are some links to useful websites which contain information about how to keep your children safe online during this unprecedented time and how/where to report any safeguarding issues that may arise during remote online learning. Simply click on each image to take you directly to the corresponding website. If you require any further advice, please contact your child's class teacher via SeeSaw.

NSPCC

NSPCC have updated their website with some useful links, guidance and information to help support you with remote learning from home and online safety. Please click on the picture below to be taken directly to the updated page.

The CEOP – Child Exploitation and Online Protection website is an asset of the National Crime Agency's CEOP Command. The CEOP Command works to protect children from the harm of sexual abuse and exploitation both online and offline. You will find information on this site of how, when and where to report any online issues.

ThinkuKnow is a website that links with CEOP. It provides age appropriate advice and support for children and parents and hosts some thought provoking cartoons and animations for children

There are some useful App/Game safety tips on the Online Safety section of the school website. These are updated when The National Online safety (NOS) team release them.

Work together as a TEAM…

Talk about the importance of staying safe online and how to do so

Explore the online world together and allow your children to explain their online interests to you

Agree rules about what is ok and what is not

Manage your family's settings and controls